THE JAVELIN

for 1954

We have chosen the theme, student life, with the purpose of recording for you happy memories of the 1953 - 1954 school year. May the pages of this book continue to serve you as pleasant reminders of friendships and accomplishments in C. C. H. S.

To the Tates -- To Mrs. Tate, an excellent musician who through her sincere interest, high standards, and unusual talent for singing and making others sing, has given so much pleasure to our school and community; and to Mr. Tate, one of the finest of men who through his ability as a coach, teacher, principal, and now as our superintendent, has won our deepest admiration for his policies in being fair, considerate, and sound in his efforts to make better students of us all -- to both of them as a team for the enrichment of our school life, we dedicate with genuine respect this 1954 edition of THE JAVELIN.

BI-DISTRICT CHAMPS

"The past season was one of the greatest in Javelin history. We went a long way and it took the co operation of the whole school to get us there. The greatest thing about our team was that we played as team. We didn't have any real individual stars. I'm thankful that the team I played on was one such as tha It is my sincere hope that the Javelin teams of future years will remember that there is no greater asse than teamwork." Bill Coker

'53 FOOTBALL REVIEW

Sept. 18--Crystal City 0-Eagle Pass 0

"We worked to the goal line four times but lacked the umph' to go over." Mason Williams

Sept. 25--Crystal City 7-Uvalde 13

"As far as scores count, Uvalde won, but it was a moral victory for the Hogs who won statistically." Bill Coker

Oct. 2--Crystal City 27-Poteet 7

Javelins Meet Lyford Bulldogs In First Regional Game For Crystal

By T. C. Hill, Jr.

Playing without the services of their little buddy, Tommyhawk Allen, the Fightin' Hawgs rose to the occasion with a hard-fought, cleanly played victory over Karnes City's Battlin' Badgers to take their bi-district championship, 13-7.

Rugged blocking in the line and downfield, along with sharp, hard running and tackling, took a toll on the strength of both elevens as runners and passers were getting up more slowly with each collision. Finally, near the end, the Hawgs were able to wear down their excellent opponent and pull the game out by its very roots, with fans collapsing from exhaustion and anxiety.

By shooting every gun they had, the Hawgs managed to pretty well clamp on the Badger 21 yard line most of the first half, working down to just inches outside the 20 twice, but never getting their penetration. The Badgers' best effort got them to our 46 in the first half for their deepest thrust, yet there was a distinct feeling of uneasines each time Pat Crews and Walt Schulle set out with the ball—they were terrific, to say the least.

With little more than seconds remaining before halftime, a short Badger kick put us in business on their 32. Little Brother Williams' first pass was too tall, but his second hit Cockroach Ramirez on the 10, the Cockroach open as a book, and over he went. Ripper Rutledge kicked a trifle wide, and led, 6-0.

A big feature of the first half was the brother act of the Williams kids, as Crazylegs and Little Brother were running and blocking with almost equal effect, as a like as two peas in a pod. The Ripper showed up well—but more on him later.

Bullet Greer's faking and passing were fine stuff, as he hit Moose Coker for 15 yards and ALMOST got a score on a long fling to the Cockroach on the first Hawg drive.

Dearest Tommy,

I've really enjoyed going to school with you these two years. I really enjoyed the laughs we've had in the B.A. room (6th period Study Hall). Really will miss you when I leave, and that's not too far off, but I hope I'll get to see a lot of you after I graduate. This year has been a happy one and an enjoyable one as well because you have helped it to be in many ways. Let's see that we had some little arguments over nothing but that has not spoiled the year.

I wish you lots of luck as I carry a world full of memories from Crystal High with me. Lots of luck and best wishes to you, nice guy.

Love,
Mary Medellin
